Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Grenada, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Suriname, Trinidad and Tobago, Uruguay and Venezuela: draft resolution

NEED TO ADOPT EFFICIENT INTERNATIONAL MEASURES FOR THE PREVENTION OF THE SALE OF CHILDREN, CHILD PROSTITUTION AND CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

The General Assembly,

Recalling the Convention on the Rights of the Child adopted by resolution 44/25 of 20 November 1989,

Recalling also the World Declaration on the Survival, Protection and Development of Children in the 1990s and the Plan of Action for implementing the said Declaration adopted by the World Summit for Children on 30 September 1990, which establishes a solemn commitment of granting priority to the rights of the child and to his or her survival, protection and development, thus contributing to the welfare of every society,

Mindful of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, 1/ which requires effective measures against female infanticide, harmful child labour, sale of children and organs, child prostitution, child pornography, as well as other forms of sexual abuse,

Bearing in mind also resolution 1992/74 of the Commission on Human Rights of 5 March 1992 2/ by which the Commission adopted the Programme of Action for the Prevention of the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography,

Recognizing the enormous efforts made in this field by the United Nations, particularly the United Nations Children's Fund, the Committee on the Rights of the Child and the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on the sale of children,

Deeply concerned by the persistence of the practices of the use of children for prostitution, sexual abuse and other activities, which may also often constitute exploitation of child labour,

Deeply disturbed by the persistence of the practices of the sale of children and other practices, which may be linked to related disappearances, illegal adoptions, abandonment and kidnapping for commercial purposes,

Regretting that one of the main difficulties found by the Special Rapporteur has been the lack of information on this issue,

Bearing in mind the different causes that influence the emergence, and continuation, of these special circumstances, including in particular poverty, natural disasters and armed conflicts and their harmful effects on the rights of children,

Considering that it is necessary to deploy greater efforts at the national and international level to promote and protect the rights of children all over the world,

Expressing its interest in benefiting from the studies, conclusions and recommendations of the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights,

1. Expresses great concern at the growing number of incidents world wide related to the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography;

2. Urges Governments to continue searching for solutions as well as ways and means to enhance international cooperation to eradicate such aberrant practices;

1/ A/CONF.157/23.

2/ Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, 1992, Supplement No. 2 (E/1992/22-E/CN.4/1992/84).

3. Expresses its support of the work of the Special Rapporteur appointed by the Commission on Human Rights to examine all over the world the question of child sales, child prostitution and child pornography, and urges him to continue his efforts in the discharge of his mandate;

4. Urges all Governments to collaborate with the Special Rapporteur and to assist him by providing him with all the requested information;

5. Calls upon those States that have not done so to become parties to the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and the States parties to the Convention, to implement national measures aimed at fulfilling the provisions of the Convention;

6. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to give priority during its fiftieth session to the creation of a working group to elaborate guidelines for a possible draft convention on the issues related to the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, as well as the basic measures to prevent and eradicate these serious problems;

7. Invites the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights, within the framework of his mandate, to continue providing attention to the economic, social, legal and cultural factors affecting these phenomena;

8. Requests the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights to submit a provisional report to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session;

9. Requests the Secretary-General, from within existing resources, to provide the Special Rapporteur and the working group to be created by the Commission on Human Rights with every necessary assistance;

10. Decides to consider this question at its forty-ninth session, under the agenda item entitled "Necessity of adopting effective measures for the promotion and protection of the rights of children throughout the world who are victims of especially difficult circumstances, including armed conflicts".
